Music with Mrs. Beaver

Here is what has been happening at music class during our first few weeks of the school year . . .

The students are working at "keeping the beat" using rhythm instruments, learning to adjust the pace to tempo changes during large motor fun, matching pitch as we sing fun songs (that their parents grew up singing), and taking turns "directing" - starting and stopping unexpectedly - so we REALLY have to watch the director! The students direct from the balcony near the Fruit of the Spirit tree. Within the tree is hidden "the banana" (which is NOT a Fruit of the Spirit and has to be found and removed). We also have a "Band", in which our 4K group excels!

Families will be receiving a song book with all the songs the students are learning PLUS the scriptures sung to the same tunes! The K, 1st and 2nd graders have begun piano lessons, listening and learning about Mozart, Beethoven, Aaron Copeland, Prokofiev, Strauss, Grieg and Paul Desmond. We have made playdoh figures that we find in our featured "Famous Paintings". Mrs. Ahlgren has read poetry and brief bios about the composers and artists. So, we are very busy in a JOYOUS way!

And the beat goes on . . .

A note from Mrs. Zeigle

1+2=3

Wow, what an amazing and busy September it has been! It doesn't seem possible that we have almost completed our first month of school. The students, as well as the teachers, are settling nicely into the daily routine.

Our days are filled with lessons, learning, and of course some fun! Each day begins with pledges, praises, and prayers in the chapel area, and I have to say I'm so impressed with how quickly these young students are learning all that we do in a single day. They are learning and memorizing not only academic information, but Bible verses, table blessings, opening & closing prayers, chapel lessons, and more!!! Of course the top priorities of the students are . . . snack time, recess, lunch, and music class with Mrs. Beaver & Mrs. Ahlgren!

The classical curriculum used at Trinitas is focused on the mastery of foundational skills in the core areas ensuring that students develop the strong building blocks needed to be successful as they move on to the upper grammar, logic (middle school), and rhetoric (high school) stages of learning.

None of this would have been possible without God blessing TCA through supporters like you! Thank you for your support, prayers, and donations that have made Trinitas Classical Academy a reality. It is truly a blessing to get to teach in such a warm, loving environment!

A Week at TCA

Each week at TCA parents are provided with a break down of what their children are learning. This gives parents the opportunity to reinforce and connect with their children about what is happening at school each day! Below is a partial example of what parents receive for our 4K class. Categories not shown: numbers, letters, colors, shapes and show and tell.
